

PRODUCTIVITY AND INNOVATION VOUCHER PROGRAM 2016-17
SERVICE PROVIDER PROFILE

The Productivity and Innovation Voucher Program is intended to help small and medium sized businesses (SMEs) become more productive and innovative while building stronger linkages between businesses and Nova Scotian universities and colleges. Any questions, please contact Amanda Tarr by email at atarr@innovacorp.ca or call 902-424-8670 ext. 1601, or Toll Free (Atlantic Canada) 1.800.565.7051

Organization	Dalhousie University
Primary Contact Name	Margaret Palmeter
Primary Contact Title	Manager
Phone	902-494-1693
Email	margaret.palmeter@dal.ca
Research Office	Industry Liaison and Innovation
Business Address	1344 Summer Street, Suite 207 Halifax, Nova Scotia, B3H 4R2

Proposed Services:

1. Applied research
2. Proof of Concept, Field Testing, Product Evaluation and Validation testing
3. Prototyping of devices and/or concepts
4. Scientific/Technology related advice and support
5. Feasibility studies necessary to move a product or service to market
6. Eco-efficiency audits around subject of sustainability, energy, and environmental issues
7. Industrial/Process Engineering Services
8. Resource Allocation/Optimization and Process Improvement assessments
9. Market Research/Competitive Analysis

All proposed services will be provided with a specific researcher with subject expertise; or any Research Centre or Group at Dalhousie University. This includes all Faculties at Dalhousie University and the former Nova Scotia Agricultural College.

